

Fields of Study

Scholarships are available in law, public health, gender and development studies, development and environmental management studies, sociology, psychology, physiotherapy, optometry, nursing and special need and inclusive education

Important Dates (Tentative)

April 01– June 30, 2024 (G.C.)
Megabit 23– Senie 23, 2016 (E.C.)

Inclusion

The Program and the University of Gondar promote inclusion by focusing on accessibility, assistive devices, mentoring, accessible transportation, training, and guidance and counseling for persons with disabilities

Full Graduate Scholarship for Persons with Disabilities and Females with Financial Need by the

Mastercard Foundation Scholars Program at the University of Gondar

Flexible Funding

More funding opportunities for entrepreneurship, research, project and community giveback

Eligibility

Youth with disability and females with financial need are eligible to apply. Application requirements include BA from a recognized university in the past 5 years with a minimum CGPA OF 2.75 (on a 4.0 scale). Graduate scholarships are open for talented Ethiopians, Eritreans, South Sudanese, Somalians and Djiboutians.

Scholarship Package

The scholarship package includes stipend, tuition fee, room and board, laptop, basic medical cost coverage, assistive devices, and so much more.